

The Distributor - Whitepaper

Supporting the Distribute Ecosystem

Introduction

In the ever-growing world of decentralized finance, The Distributor emerges as a purpose-driven memecoin that fuels and supports the broader Distribute ecosystem. It is more than just a meme it is a utility-backed community token with a mission to strengthen and amplify the native Distribute token through a sustainable tax model, community engagement, and tokenomics designed for long-term value.

Purpose

The Distributor acts as a support token for Distribute, funneling value, liquidity, and rewards into the ecosystem. By investing in The Distributor, holders actively participate in the growth and health of the Distribute token, while still enjoying the potential for memecoin-style price action.

Tokenomics

Token Type: Solana-based

Name: The Distributor
